Aleit Bridal and Styling Presents Unique Style Consultation Service

The Aleit Group is proud to announce the launch of Aleit Bridal and Styling, a unique style consultation service that assists bridal couples in finding the perfect attire and accessories for their wedding.

The Aleit Group has recognised the demand for a wedding image consultancy that showcases the finest dress and suit designers in South Africa. Aleit Bridal and Styling offers discerning couples a comprehensive, professional styling service and features the most talented designers in the industry, hand-picked by fashion expert Marilize de Clercq and Aleit Swanepoel, founder of the company.

The consultancy reflects Aleit's personalised approach and attention to detail. Marilize de Clercq creates the perfect look for each couple through understanding their unique style and preferences. Her services include recommending a suitable designer and hair and make-up stylist, as well as sourcing the right garments and accessories for the bride, groom and retinue. Not only does this simplify what can be a daunting part of the wedding planning, it also ensures that the client's budget is spent wisely and effectively. The service is available to all bridal couples, whether they employ the services of Aleit Wedding Coordination or not.

The Aleit Group is regarded as South Africa's premier wedding and function coordination company and offers uncompromising standards and service to its clientele. Marilize de Clercq boasts years of experience as a fashion and image consultant, and has worked with top South African couture designers, local celebrities such as Joann Strauss and Minki van der Westhuizen, as well as Hollywood actor Stelio Savante of Ugly Betty fame and CNN presenter Tumi Makgabo. She was also scouted by Fabiani and worked as their personal fashion consultant for leading businessmen.

With the combined experience and talent of The Aleit Group and Marilize de Clercq, Aleit Bridal and Styling offers a unique service that elegantly captures the personal style of its clients on their special day.

About the Aleit Group:

The Aleit Group was founded by Aleit Swanepoel in 2002 and coordinates the most celebrated and sophisticated functions on South Africa's event calendar. The company includes Aleit Wedding Coordination, Aleit Event Projects, the Aleit Shop and Aleit Music and Entertainment, and launched its first European outlet in Munich in 2007. The group also recently published their first book, "100 Words about Weddings."
